

Repairs by Tenant	10. Tenant accepts the leased premises in their present condition and as suited for the uses intended by Tenant. Tenant shall, throughout the initial term of this lease and all renewals thereof, at its expense, maintain in good order and repair the leased premises, including the building and other improvements located thereon, except those repairs expressly required to be made by Landlord. Tenant further agrees to care for the grounds around the building, including the mowing of grass, paving, care of shrubs and general landscaping. Tenant agrees to return said premises to Landlord at the expiration, or prior to termination, of this lease in as good condition and repair as when first received, natural wear and tear, damage by storm, fire, lightning, earthquake or other casualty alone excepted. Elevators, (if any), are accepted by Tenant as in satisfactory operating condition on this date, and Tenant, at his own expense, shall maintain said elevators in good operating condition during the term of this lease, or any extension thereof.
Tax Escalation	11. Tenant shall pay upon demand, as additional rental during the term of this lease and any extension or renewal thereof, the amount by which all taxes (including, but not limited to, ad valorem taxes, special assessments and any other governmental charges) on the premises for each tax year exceeds all taxes on the premises for the tax year. 2007. In the event the premises are less than the entire property assessed for such taxes for any such tax year, then the tax for any such year applicable to the premises shall be determined by proration on the basis that the rentable floor area of the premises bears to the rentable floor area of the entire property assessed. If the final year of the lease term fails to coincide with the tax year, then any excess for the tax year during which the term ends shall be reduced by the pro rata part of such tax year beyond the lease term. If such taxes for the year in which the lease terminates are not ascertainable before payment of the last month's rental, then the amount of such taxes assessed against the property for the previous tax year shall be used as a basis of determining the pro rata share, if any, to be paid by Tenant for that portion of the last lease year. Tenant's pro rata portion of increased taxes, as provided herein, shall be payable within fifteen days after receipt of notice from Landlord or Agent as to the amount due. The Agent's commission shall not apply to any such additional rental resulting from the provisions of this paragraph unless billing and collection thereof is handled by Agent at the request of the Landlord.
Destruction of, or Damage to Premises	12. If premises are totally destroyed by storm, fire, lightning, earthquake or other casualty, this lease shall terminate as of the date of such destruction, and rental shall be accounted for as between Landlord and Tenant as of that date. If premises are damaged but not wholly destroyed by any such casualties, rental shall abate in such proportion as use of premises has been destroyed, and Landlord shall restore premises to substantially the same condition as before damage as speedily as practicable, whereupon full rental shall recommence.
Indemnity	13. Tenant agrees to indemnify and save harmless the Landlord against all damages to Tenant and to persons or property by reason of the use or occupancy of the leased premises or common areas, and all expenses incurred by Landlord because thereof, including attorneys' fees and court costs.
Governmental Orders	14. Tenant agrees, at his own expense, to promptly comply with all requirements of any legally constituted public authority made necessary by reason of Tenant's occupancy of said premises. Landlord agrees to promptly comply with any such requirements if not made necessary by reason of Tenant's occupancy. It is mutually agreed, however, between Landlord and Tenant, that if in order to comply with such requirements, the cost to Landlord or Tenant, as the case may be, shall exceed a sum equal to one year's rent, then Landlord or Tenant who is obligated to comply with such requirements is privileged to terminate this lease by giving written notice of termination to the other party, by registered mail, which termination shall become effective sixty (60) days after receipt of such notice, and which notice shall eliminate necessity of compliance with such requirement by party giving such notice unless party receiving such notice of termination shall, before termination becomes effective, pay to party giving notice all cost of compliance in excess of one year's rent, or secure payment of said sum in manner satisfactory to party giving notice.
Condemnation	15. If the whole of the leased premises, or such portion thereof as will make premises unusable for the purposes herein leased, be condemned by any legally constituted authority for any public use or purpose, then in either of said events the term hereby granted shall cease from the date when possession thereof is taken by public authorities, and rental shall be accounted for as between Landlord and Tenant as of said date. Such termination, however, shall be without prejudice to the rights of either Landlord or Tenant to recover compensation and damage caused by condemnation from the condemnor. It is further understood and agreed that neither the Tenant nor Landlord shall have any rights in any award made to the other by any condemnation authority notwithstanding the termination of the lease as herein provided. Landlord agrees to pay to Agent, from the award made to Landlord under condemnation, the balance of lease commissions, reduced to then present cash value, as provided in paragraph 4 hereof, and agent may become a party to the condemnation proceeding for the purpose of enforcing its rights under this paragraph.
Assignment and Subletting	16. Tenant may sublease portions of the leased premises to others provided such sublease operation is a part of the general operation of Tenant and under the supervision and control of Tenant, and provided such operation is within the purpose for which said premises shall be used. Except as provided in preceding sentence, Tenant shall not, without the prior written consent of Landlord endorsed hereon, assign this lease or any interest hereunder, or sublet premises or any part thereof, or permit the use of premises by any party other than Tenant. Consent to any assignment or sublease shall not destroy this provision, and all later assignments or subleases shall be made likewise only on the prior written consent of Landlord. Assignee of Tenant, at option of Landlord, shall become directly liable to Landlord for all obligations of Tenant hereunder, but no sublease or assignment by Tenant shall relieve Tenant of any liability hereunder.
Removal of Fixtures	17. Tenant may (if not in default hereunder) prior to the expiration of this lease, or any extension thereof, remove all fixtures and equipment which he has placed in premises, provided Tenant repairs all damage to premises caused by such removal.
Cancellation of Lease by Landlord	18. It is mutually agreed that in the event the Tenant shall default in the payment of rent, including additional rent, herein reserved, when due, and fails to cure said default within five (5) days after written notice thereof from Landlord; or if Tenant shall be in default in performing any of the terms or provisions of this lease other than the provision requiring the payment of rent, and fails to cure such default within thirty (30) days after the date of receipt of written notice of default from Landlord; or if Tenant is adjudicated bankrupt; or if a permanent receiver is appointed for Tenant's property and such receiver is not removed within sixty days after written notice from Landlord to Tenant to obtain such removal; or if, whether voluntarily or involuntarily, Tenant takes advantage of any debtor relief proceedings under any present or future law, whereby the rent or any part thereof is, or is proposed to be, reduced or payment thereof deferred; or if Tenant makes an assignment for benefit of creditors; or if Tenant's effects should be levied upon or attached under process against Tenant, not satisfied or dissolved within thirty (30) days after written notice from Landlord to Tenant to obtain satisfaction thereof; then, and in any of said events, Landlord at his option may at once, or within six (6) months thereafter (but only during continuance of such default or condition), terminate this lease by written notice to Tenant; whereupon this lease shall end. After an authorized assignment or subletting of the entire premises covered by this lease, the occurring of any of the foregoing defaults or events shall affect this lease only if caused by, or happening to, the assignee or sublessee. Any notice provided in this paragraph may be given by Landlord, or his attorney, or Agent herein named. Upon such termination by Landlord, Tenant will at once surrender possession of the premises to Landlord and remove all of Tenant's effects therefrom; and Landlord may forthwith re-enter the premises and repossess himself thereof, and remove all persons and effects therefrom, using such force as may be necessary without being guilty of trespass, forcible entry or detainer or other tort.
